Research Project Policy

1. Introduction:

Indira Mahavidyalaya, Kalamb, recognizes the importance of research in advancing knowledge, fostering innovation, and contributing to societal development. As part of its commitment to academic excellence and research advancement, the institution encourages its faculty members to undertake research projects funded by various national funding agencies in India, such as the University Grants Commission (UGC), Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), Defence Research and Development Organization (DRDO), Indian Space Research Organization (ISRO), Department of Biotechnology (DBT), Department of Science and Technology (DST), and Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB).

2. Objectives:

- To promote research culture and academic excellence among faculty members.
- To facilitate faculty members in securing research funding from national agencies.
- To enhance the institution's research output and contribute to national development goals.
- To foster interdisciplinary collaboration and knowledge exchange.

3. Eligibility:

- All full-time faculty members of Indira Mahavidyalaya, Kalamb, are eligible to apply for research projects.
- Faculty members must meet the eligibility criteria specified by the respective funding agency for the applied grant.

4. Procedure:

- Faculty members interested in applying for research funding must submit a detailed proposal to the Research Committee of the institution.
- The Research Committee will evaluate the proposals based on criteria such as academic merit, feasibility, relevance to national priorities, and alignment with the institution's research goals.
- Upon approval by the Research Committee, faculty members may proceed with the application process to the respective funding agency.
- Faculty members are encouraged to seek guidance and support from the institution's research support services for proposal development, budgeting, and administrative procedures.
- The institution provides necessary support, such as infrastructure, facilities, and administrative assistance, to facilitate the successful implementation of research projects.

5. Ethical Considerations:

- All research projects must adhere to the highest ethical standards and comply with relevant regulations and guidelines, including those related to human subjects, animal welfare, biosafety, and intellectual property rights.
- Faculty members are responsible for obtaining necessary ethical approvals and ensuring the ethical conduct of research throughout the project duration.

6. Reporting and Accountability:

- Faculty members who receive research funding are required to submit periodic progress reports to the funding agency and the institution's Research Committee.
- The institution will monitor the progress of research projects and provide necessary support to overcome any challenges encountered during the implementation phase.
- Faculty members are accountable for the proper utilization of research funds in accordance with the approved budget and guidelines of the funding agency.

7. Review and Evaluation:

- The institution will conduct periodic reviews and evaluations of its research activities to assess their impact, identify areas for improvement, and ensure alignment with institutional goals and national priorities.

Indira Mahavidyalaya, Kalamb, is committed to fostering a vibrant research ecosystem that nurtures creativity, innovation, and excellence. Through this policy, the institution aims to support and empower its faculty members in undertaking impactful research projects that contribute to knowledge creation, societal development, and national progress.
