Policy for Awards, Recognitions, and Participation in Extension Activities

Introduction:

Indira Mahavidyalaya Kalamb acknowledges the significance of awards, recognitions, and participation in extension activities facilitated by government or government-recognized bodies. These accolades not only validate the institution's commitment to excellence but also serve as a testament to its contributions to the broader community. This policy outlines the framework and guidelines for pursuing, accepting, and leveraging such honors in a manner that aligns with institution values, mission, and vision.

Objectives:

1. To foster a culture of excellence and continuous improvement within institution.
2. To encourage faculty, staff, and students to actively participate in extension activities that benefit society.
3. To establish transparent procedures for applying for awards and recognitions from government or government-recognized bodies.
4. To ensure that the acceptance of awards and recognitions aligns with institution ethical standards and values.
5. To leverage received honors to enhance institution reputation and credibility.

Policy Framework:

1. Eligibility Criteria:

Institution faculty, staff, and students are eligible to apply for awards and recognitions offered by government or government-recognized bodies. These awards may include but are not limited to such as Excellence in Teaching, Research Achievements, Community Service, Innovation and Entrepreneurship and Social and Environmental initiatives

2. Application Process:

Institution established a dedicated committee responsible for coordinating the application process for awards and recognitions. The committee disseminate information about available opportunities. Interested individuals or groups must submit their applications to the committee within the specified deadline. Applications should include relevant documentation, such as achievements, impact statements, and letters of recommendation, as required by the awarding body.

3. Evaluation and Selection:

The committee will review all applications based on predefined criteria provided by the awarding body. Applications will be evaluated impartially and objectively to ensure fairness in the selection process. Shortlisted candidates may be required to undergo interviews or presentations to further assess their eligibility and suitability for the award. The final selection of awardees will be based on merit and the extent to which their contributions align with the objectives of the award.

4. Acceptance of Awards:

Upon receiving notification of selection for an award, the awardee must inform the institution administration. The administration will verify the authenticity and relevance of the award before granting approval for acceptance. Institution reserves the right to decline acceptance of any award that conflicts with its values, ethics, or mission.

5. Recognition

Awardees will be formally recognized and honored by institution through various channels, including but not limited to:

- Announcement on the institution's website and social media platforms.
- Publication in institution newsletters, magazines, or other communication channels.
- Presentation of certificates or plaques during special ceremonies or events.
- Institution will actively promote the achievements of its faculty, staff, and students to enhance the institution's reputation and visibility.
- Awardees may be invited to share their experiences and insights with the institution community to inspire others and foster a culture of excellence.

6. Utilization of Awards:

Institution will leverage received awards and recognitions to enhance its reputation and credibility in the academic and broader community. The institution may highlight these achievements in promotional materials, grant proposals, and other relevant documents to showcase its commitment to excellence and societal impact. Awardees are encouraged to continue their exemplary work and serve as ambassadors for institution, promoting its values and mission through their actions and achievements.

The policy for awards, recognitions, and participation in extension activities underscores institution commitment to fostering excellence, innovation, and community engagement. By providing clear guidelines and procedures, this policy ensures transparency, fairness, and accountability in the pursuit and acceptance of awards from government or government-recognized bodies. Through the recognition of outstanding achievements, institution aims to inspire and motivate its stakeholders to contribute meaningfully to society and uphold the institution's values and ethos.
