The event, facilitated under the umbrella of a Faculty Exchange program, aimed to honor the pioneering contributions of Savitribai Phule to the field of education and promote interdisciplinary learning among faculty members. Prof. Atulkumar Sarade, a distinguished scholar from the Department of Marathi, Arts and Commerce College, Bori-Arab, served as the esteemed resource person for the session.

The primary objective of the Guest Lecture was to shed light on the remarkable life and educational endeavors of Savitribai Phule, a prominent social reformer and the first female teacher of the Indian subcontinent. With 30 participants comprising faculty members and students from diverse academic backgrounds, the session commenced with an overview of Savitribai Phule's early life, her struggles against social injustices, and her relentless efforts to promote education, particularly among women and marginalized communities.
