Purpose of the MoU:	Knowledge Sharing
Date:	06/04/2022
Number of Participants:	27
Venue:	Smart Class Room, Indira Mahavidyalaya, Kalamb
Name of the Resource Person:	Dr. Ramnath Jha

On April 6, 2022, a guest lecture titled "NEP-2020: Transforming Higher Education" was organized at the Smart Classroom of Indira Mahavidyalaya, Kalamb. The lecture aimed to delve into the key provisions and implications of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, with a focus on its transformative impact on higher education in India. The guest lecture was conducted as part of an initiative to facilitate knowledge sharing among educators and stakeholders. The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) underpinning the event aimed to foster collaboration and exchange of ideas on educational reforms, particularly concerning the NEP-2020. Dr. Ramnath Jha, an esteemed scholar and expert in educational policy, served as the resource person for the guest lecture. The session commenced with an introduction to the NEP-2020, providing participants with a contextual understanding of its objectives and guiding principles.

Dr. Jha elaborated on the vision of the NEP-2020, emphasizing its focus on holistic development, flexibility, and inclusivity in higher education. Participants gained insights into the transformative initiatives proposed under the NEP-2020, including the restructuring of curricula, promotion of multidisciplinary education, and integration of technology-enabled learning. The session explored the challenges and opportunities associated with the implementation of NEP-2020, encouraging participants to reflect on strategies for overcoming barriers and leveraging the policy's potential benefits.

The guest lecture witnessed active participation from 27 attendees, comprising faculty members, administrators, and education enthusiasts. Participants engaged in lively discussions, posing questions, and sharing perspectives on various aspects of the NEP-2020 and its implications for higher education institutions. The guest lecture on NEP-2020 provided participants with valuable insights into the transformative agenda set forth by the policy.
