A Guidance Programme on Publication Business was held on April 1, 2020, at the Seminar Hall of Indira Mahavidyalaya in Kalamb. A total of 54 individuals attended the programme, indicating a strong interest in the subject matter. The venue provided an appropriate setting for such an event, offering ample space and facilities conducive to learning and discussion. Mr. Onkar Shelke, a respected figure in the publication industry, served as the resource person for the programme. His expertise and experience added significant value to the event, enriching the discussions and providing practical insights into the publication business. Throughout the programme, Mr. Shelke shared valuable knowledge, including industry trends, best practices, and strategies for success in the publication sector.

The programme covered various aspects of the publication business, including editorial processes, marketing strategies, distribution channels, and digital publishing trends. Participants engaged actively in the discussions, posing insightful questions and sharing their own experiences and challenges in the field. The interactive nature of the sessions fostered a collaborative learning environment, allowing participants to exchange ideas and learn from one another. Key topics addressed during the programme included the importance of quality content, the role of technology in publishing, copyright and intellectual property rights, and emerging opportunities in the digital publishing landscape. Mr. Shelke's presentations were informative and engaging, providing participants with practical tips and tools to enhance their publication ventures.

The Guidance Programme on Publication Business was a resounding success, thanks to the collective efforts of the organizers, participants, and resource person. It served as a valuable platform for knowledge sharing and networking, empowering participants with the skills and insights needed to thrive in the dynamic and competitive world of publishing. The event concluded with a sense of enthusiasm and inspiration, as participants departed with newfound knowledge and a renewed sense of purpose in their publication endeavors.
