Participants from various states took part in the event, including Krantikumar Shailesh Alone, a B.Sc. third-year student from Indira College in Yavatmal. He set three world records by performing Ustrasana, Chakrasana, and Uttan-Mandukasana, maintaining a steady position in each asana, thereby elevating the college's name on the global stage.

Indira College, Kalamb, felicitated Krantikumar Alone for his achievement. His parents were also congratulated and wished well. The event was graced by Executive President Dr. Sindhu Mandavkar, College Principal Dr. Pawan Mandavkar, Physical Education Director Sheetal Raut, Professors Dr. Veera Mandavkar, Professor Jawade, Dr. Patki, Dr. Chavan, Dr. Suradkar, Dr. Ingle, Dr. Nemade, Krantikumar's father Shailesh Alone, mother Suvarna Alone, and Premdas Pakde, Director of Nandan Yoga Center. The college's teachers and non-teaching staff were also present, and everyone praised Krantikumar wholeheartedly.

Sw. Suryakantadevi Pote State Level Excellence in Literature Awards Announced

Senior Literary Figure Dr. Sindhutai Mandavkar to be Honored as 'Sahityavrati'

Representative | Amravati

The Matoshree Sw. Suryakantadevi Ramchandrajji Pote Trust has announced the 2021 state-level excellence in literature awards. This year, the renowned literary figure and thinker Dr. Sindhutai Mandavkar will be honored with the 'Sahityavrati' award. In these awards, the prize for best novel is awarded to Dr. Mahesh Kharat from Aurangabad for his novel "Churgat." The award for best short story collection goes to D.B. Patil from Sangli for his collection "Notebandi." The award for best poetry collection has been announced for Anerao's "Kahi Saata Nahi." In the mixed category, Dr. Pratibha Jadhav from Lasalgaon has been selected for her book "Aswasthatechi Diary" in the literary writing section. For literary criticism, the award goes to Dr. Santosh Chatur from Darwha for his book "Marathi Vratkatha Aakalan va Sameeksha." In the children's literature category, the awards are divided between Suresh Sawant from Nanded for "Googlebaba" and Shivaji Chalak from Pune for "Undarachya Tanga." The awards include a cash prize of five thousand rupees, a shawl, a coconut, and a memento. The announcement was made by Trust President Ramchandra Pote and Committee Coordinator Prof. Dr. Shobha Rokde after esteemed judges evaluated the submitted works and finalized the winners in the award committee meeting. Former Minister and MLA Praveen Pote established this trust in memory of his mother to annually honor authors in Marathi literature across various categories. Additionally, senior literary figures from Vidarbha are honored with the 'Sahityavrati' award, which includes a cash prize of eleven thousand rupees, a citation, a shawl, and a coconut. This prestigious award is being conferred this year on Dr. Sindhutai Mandavkar for her extensive and continuous service to literature, as decided unanimously by the award organizing committee. Committee members present at the meeting included Prof. Dr. Kumar Bobade, Prof. Dr. Prakash Mandanadurkar, Sandeep Deshmukh, and Prajakta Wankhede present here.
